Dear Sir,

You may have noticed on your proof of the Review of Tristram V, or will do so, an addition I have taken the liberty of adding from the Ansab of Sam'ani, in the belief you would have done so had you possessed the Volume - as it is older than the authority you quote, & to similar effect.

It is indeed scandalous that you, & other scholars, should not have had this Volume long since. My own copy has been bound & in use since the 7 April of last year - But the trustee in charge of the work - which is a photographic facsimile, refuses to bring it out. It has now been 5½ years in progress - Yrnsly

H. F. Amedroz
